Did Israel steal land from Arab people?

When the 1948 war for Independence broke out Israel urged the Arab people to stay- after all they had been neighbors for many years. The 7 Arab nations that came against Israel urged all Arabs to leave - so that the total destruction of Israel could take place. Those leaving were promised all of the land which the Jewish people had purchased. When the war ended many of these people who left their land ended up in refugee camps: since no Arab states welcomed these refugees, they, their children, and grandchildren are still in Gaza.

Jewish people were expelled from Tunisia, Iraq, Iran and other non Arab countries and their lands and possessions confiscated. Israel welcomed all of those displaced people.
